

2017 Hazardous Materials Transportation Web-Based Training Class for Aviation Industry Shippers –Registration Form

All classes meet the training requirements established under Title 49 C.F.R. We train to the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations (conforms to the ICAO Technical Instructions). Those who successfully complete this course and pass the subsequent test will receive a certificate of training (suitable for framing) and a record of training to be placed in the employee’s file (meets government recordkeeping requirements).

The cost of the course includes digital materials, but the attendee agrees to provide their own copy of the Dangerous Goods Regulations (DGR) Manual – 2017 (58th edition).

The attendee will be expected have the 2017 DGR Manual prior to the class.

IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO COMPLETE THE CLASS WITHOUT THE 2017 DGR MANUAL.

Please visit www.dangerousgoodstraining.net for more information such as the syllabus and class schedule prior to completing and returning this form.

A discount applies to members (and employees of member companies) of the participating trade association.

By signing this form, you are entering into a contract to pay for training. You are liable for the amount even if you do not send someone to the training class. If you miss the class, then you will receive a credit that can be used toward any other Washington Aviation Group hazmat class within 6 months after the missed class. Unused credits will not be refunded. Any payment disputes will be settled under the laws of, and in a court located in, the District of Columbia, and if it becomes necessary to use the legal system to obtain payment under this agreement, the losing party will pay the prevailing party’s costs and attorneys fees (including standard hourly fees of in-house counsel). If fewer than six persons register for the training class as of two weeks before the class, it may be rescheduled at the discretion of the Washington Aviation Group. If rescheduled, you will be contacted for your input into convenient rescheduling times.
